

Stephen W. Kenyon

Stephen W. Kenyon was raised in Boise, Idaho and graduated from Idaho State University in 1994 with a BA in Accounting. Steve began his career in public service in May of 1994 working as an accountant in the Idaho State Controller's office where helped produce Idaho's first accrual basis financial statements.

In May of 2000, Steve received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Idaho and passed the Idaho Bar that summer. Following law school Steve spent four years working for the Idaho State Controller's office as the Staff Attorney and Administrator of the Division of Statewide Payroll.

On January 3, 2005 Steve was appointed to serve as the Clerk of the Idaho Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. Steve spent over 12 years as the Clerk of the Courts, publishing over twenty volumes of the Idaho Reports during that time. Steve is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Idaho State Bar. Steve served a four year term on the Board of Directors of the Idaho State University Alumni Association. Steve and his wife Teuila have four children and live in Boise.

Steve was appointed to serve as Clerk of the U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Idaho on June 19, 2017.